- ❖ For Catholics who are receiving Holy Communion, please bow your head before receiving Communion as a sign of reverence for the Real Presence of Christ.
- ❖ We welcome non-Catholics to this celebration of the Eucharist but because we believe that the Eucharist is a sign of the oneness of faith, life and worship, members of other churches with whom we are not fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. We ask for you to remain seated during the Communion rite and join us in prayer for Christian unity and peace for the human family.

Homily

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Offertory Antiphon [omitted at 10³⁰] Viri Galilaei Mode 1

quid admiramini aspicientes in caelum?	Viri Galilaei, Men of Galilee, why do you gaze at the sky in astonishment?
Hic Jesus, qui assumptus est a vobis in caelum, sic veniet, quemadmodum vidistis eum ascendentem in caelum, alleluia.	This same Jesus who was taken up from you into heaven, will come by the very way in which you saw him go into heaven, alleluia.

Anthem [10³⁰] God is gone up Gerald Finzi (1901-1956)

God is gone up with a triumphant shout: the Lord with sounding trumpets' melodies. Sing praise, sing praises out, unto our king sing praise seraphic-wise! Lift up your heads, ye lasting doors, they sing, and let the king of glory enter in. Methinks I see heaven's sparkling courtiers fly, in flakes of glory down, him to attend; and hear heart-cramping notes of melody surround his chariot as it did ascend, mixing their music, making every string more to enravish as they this tune sing.
