Ex Sion species decoris ejus,                  Deus manifeste veniet.                  Congregate illi sanctos ejus qui ordinaverunt                  testamentum ejus super sacrificia.                  Laetatus sum in his quae dicta sunt mihi, alleluia,                  In domum Domini, in domum ibimus, alleluia.	From Zion in the light of his great beauty                  God has shone and is made manifest.                  Call together all his saints most righteous who                  ratified his covenant by their holy sacrifice.                  I heartily rejoiced at their invitation, alleluia,                  O let us now go up to God's own house, alleluia.

Thanksgiving [10<sup>30</sup>] Psalm 122 Leo Sowerby (1895-1968)

I was glad when they said unto me, we will go into the house of the Lord. Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem. Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity in itself. For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord, to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord. For there is the seat of judgment, even the seat of the house of David. O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, and plenteousness within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will wish thee prosperity. Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good.

Please respect our custom of standing in place and singing the entire recessional hymn.

Recessional Hymn Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus Missal, p. 599
